YOUR STORY

1. Describe your family's current situation in terms of relationship and finances.

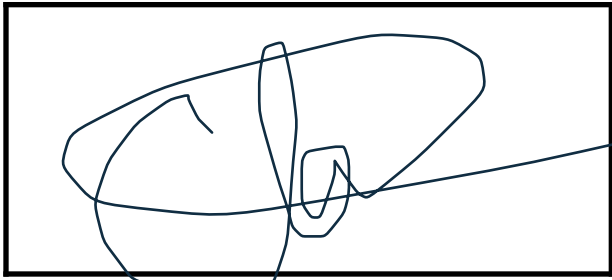

Our financial situation has always been tight since we only have one provider, Papa, who passed away from bone marrow cancer. Our household expenses were difficult for us, even with the support of our extended family, we still struggle heavily. And because Papa got sick, our family relationship had become stronger because I can see with my own eyes that with each passing day, my Papa is really getting weaker. Despite this, we remain hopeful that he will recover, and even though I'm only a student and cannot afford to take care of my father financially, I do what I can to help. Since Papa is no longer with us, our family has lost its strength and we have no one to help us financially. We are lost, not knowing where to go and if there is anyone to go to because one of the people we have spent our entire lives with is no longer with us, physically, but in our hearts, I know he's with us.

2. What life experiences have shaped you to be who you are today and what challenges have you overcome to continue your education?

That it's okay to be weak and not be strong every day. That even though I know I can be weak today if I am surrounded by my problems and thoughts, I know that there is still tomorrow. There is time to consider what steps should be taken to address the challenges of life. Tomorrow remains an opportunity to overcome the obstacles in life. And tomorrow is still ahead of me, as I still have a lot of life left to experience, including people I have yet to meet but who I know I will eventually meet and who will have a lasting impact on my life. Similar to my academic performance, I am merely a mediocre person—not outstanding but educated. I also occasionally struggle academically and I overcome it by giving myself permission to take a day off from studying, rest, and feel every emotion I would likely feel. But even if I fail, I know that there is someone who is still so proud of me in heaven even though he's no longer here.
