

CLASSROOM EVALUATION TOOL

Faculty Name: Angelo San Luis	Date of Classroom Observation: 1/20/2025
School Year and Semester: 2024-2025 Second Semester	Class Section: TEsty
Course/Subject: STS	Overall Rating: 94.71

Scale	1	2	3	4	5
Range	20 to 30.9999	31 to 50.9999	51 to 70.9999	71 to 90.9999	91 to 100
Qualitative Description	Poor (P)	Fair (F)	Satisfactory (S)	Very Satisfactory(VS)	Outstanding (O)
Classroom Observation Criteria					Rating
1. Instruction and discussion facilitation refer to sharing control and direction with students.					89.0000
2. Commitment refers to the course specialist act or quality of fulfilling responsibility giving the dedication, discipline, maturity for the learners development and advancement					99.0000
3. Teaching for independent learning pertains to the course specialist's ability to organize teaching-learning process to enable learners to maximize their potentials					89.0000
4. Use of instructional materials and other educational resources to help maximize learning					99.0000
5. Classroom climate and virtual community referring to facilitating collaborative and effective interaction.					99.9999
6. Course organization referring to objectives, concepts, examples, and program fragments discussed in class.					98.0000
7. Assessments referring to the activities required in the course to assess the competence of the students.					89.0000
Average					94.71
Qualitative Description					Outstanding (O)

Source: PUP Evaluation Matrix

Comments:

This is a comment

Evaluated by:

Rhyan V. Molinar, Ph.D
Head of Academic Programs